

GUIDE FOR ENSURING CERTIFICATION COMPLETION EMBEDDED ASSESSMENTS

---

What is DoDD 8570

Department of Defense Directive 8570 (DoDD 8570) provides

- A. Guidance and procedures for the training
- B. Certification
- C. Management of all government employees who conduct Information Assurance functions in assigned duty positions
- D. All of the Above

Who is Affected by DoDD 8570?

- A. Any full or part-time military service member, contractor, or local nationals with privileged access to a DoD information system performing information assurance (security) functions -- regardless of job or occupational series.
- B. Office of the Secretary of Defense
- C. Military Departments
- D. All of the Above

DoDD 8570 Requires

- A. By the end of CY 2010, all personnel performing IAT and IAM functions must be certified.
- B. By the end of CY 2011 all personnel performing CND-SP and IASAE roles must be certified.
- C. All IA jobs will be categorized as 'Technical' or 'Management' Level I, II, or III, and to be qualified for those jobs, you must be certified
- D. All of the Above

Information Assurance Technical (IAT) Level 1 is

- A. CISA , GCIH, CASP and GCED
- B. A+, Network+, Security + and CCNA-Security
- C. GSEC, Security+, SSCP and CCNA-Security
- D. CISA, GCIH, CASP and CISSP (or Associate)

Have the National Unions agreed to support DOD 8570 requirements?

Yes

No

- How long do I have to become certified?
  - A. There is a three-month limit for obtaining an IA Baseline Certification for all Service personnel, Government civilians, local nationals, and Non-Appropriated Fund employees. Contractors should have the appropriate IA Baseline Certification when entering the contract.
  - B. There is a six-month limit for obtaining an IA Baseline Certification for all Service personnel, Government civilians, local nationals, and Non-Appropriated Fund employees. Contractors should have the appropriate IA Baseline Certification when entering the contract.
  - C. There is a nine-month limit for obtaining an IA Baseline Certification for all Service personnel, Government civilians, local nationals, and Non-Appropriated Fund employees. Contractors should have the appropriate IA Baseline Certification when entering the contract.
  - D. There is a nine-month limit for obtaining an IA Baseline Certification for all Service personnel, Government civilians, local nationals, and Non-Appropriated Fund employees. Contractors should have the appropriate IA Baseline Certification when entering the contract.

Do I have to take the training associated with a certification, or can I just take the test?

- A. Under DoD Directive 8570.01 and as specified in DoD 8570.01-M, you are not required to take specific training to prepare for the certification test.
- B. Under DoD Directive 8570.01 and as specified in DoD 8570.01-M, you are required to take specific training to prepare for the certification test.
- C. Under DoD Directive 8570.01 and as specified in DoD 8570.01-M, you must complete specific training within 12 months to prepare for the certification test.
- D. Under DoD Directive 8570.01 and as specified in DoD 8570.01-M, you must complete specific training within 2 years to prepare for the certification test.

Once I become certified, what do I do?

- A. Register and release all your certifications to the State Department
- B. Register and release all your certifications in the Defense Workforce Certification Application (DWCA):
- C. Register and release all your certifications to the Department of Homeland Security
- D. Register and release all your certifications to Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA)

DOD Requires

- A. By the end of CY 2010, all personnel performing IAT and IAM functions must be certified.
- B. By the end of CY 2011 all personnel performing CND-SP and IASAE roles must be certified.
- C. All IA jobs will be categorized as 'Technical' or 'Management' Level I, II, or III, and to be qualified for those jobs, you must be certified
- D. All of the Above

Select Certified DOD 8570 Provider

- A. Cisco
- B. CompTIA
- C. ISACA
- D. All of the Above