TENTATIVE COURSE SCHEDULE:

NOTE: The instructor reserves the right to modify the syllabus, course schedule, and material to best meet the needs of the class.
Punctuality is an important function in everyday life. Every student is expected to demonstrate a form of professionalism, and this starts with attendance. Because this class requires active participation in class discussion, “hands-on” experiences, and some cooperative group learning, on-time attendance is essential and mandatory! As stated in the PGCC Catalog, the college in general expects that students will regularly attend the classes for which they are registered. Attendance will be taken at every class. Do not miss this class unless absolutely necessary.

CIVILITY STATEMENT

To promote a community of scholarship and civility, everyone at Prince George’s Community College is expected to be respectful, tolerant and courteous towards others at all times, adhere to college policies and procedures, and respect college property.
Creating a culture of civility both inside and outside the classroom is everyone’s responsibility.

Civility is a college-wide commitment and in order to identify PGCC students, we are requiring that ALL students have their IDs visible while AT ANY COLLEGE SITE, WHETHER THEY ARE ON THE LARGO CAMPUS OR ANY EXTENSION SITE.

Lanyards and ID holders can be obtained at the following locations:

Largo Campus - College Life Services and the Admissions & Records Office
Laurel College Center - Main office, Room 205
Joint Base Andrews - Main office
University Town Center - Front desk

Students must keep their IDs current by requesting the appropriate sticker each semester from the Admissions & Records Office or extension centers.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Prince George's Community College Code of Conduct defines the rights and responsibilities of students and establishes a system of procedures for dealing with students charged with violations of the code and other rules and regulations of the college. A student enrolling in the college assumes an obligation to conduct himself/herself in a manner compatible with the college’s function as an educational institution. Refer to the 2013-2014 Student Handbook for a complete explanation of the Code of Conduct, including the Code of Academic Integrity and the procedure for dealing with disruptive student behavior.

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The college is an institution of higher learning that holds academic integrity as its highest principle. In the pursuit of knowledge, the college community expects that all students, faculty, and staff will share responsibility for adhering to the values of honesty and unquestionable integrity. To support a community committed to academic achievement and scholarship, the Code of Academic Integrity advances the principle of honest representation in the work that is produced by students seeking to engage fully in the learning process. The complete text of the Code of Academic Integrity is in the 2013-2014 Student Handbook and posted on the college’s website.

SYLLABUS AMENDMENTS/DISCLAIMER

This syllabus is a guide and every attempt is made to provide an accurate overview of the course. However, from time to time this syllabus or class scheduled may need to be amended; circumstances and events may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester and may depend, in part, on the progress, needs, and experiences of the students. The instructor reserves the right to modify the syllabus...
contents, policies, and course schedule assignments should it be determined that such a change would improve the effectiveness of the course.

Students will be notified of changes via email, and/or “Announcements” posted on the course site. Please check the announcements regularly.
